ORAL JUDGEMENT

Mr.S.S.Patel, learned counsel, who is appearing in both these civil revision applications for respondent No.1, states that the dispute in question is settled and, therefore, both these civil revision applications have become infructuous. In view of the statement of Mr.Patel, both these civil revision applications stand disposed of as having become infructuous. Rule is discharged in both these matters with no order as to costs. Interim relief granted earlier in each of the revision application stands vacated.
